

Damione has lived in Omaha all his life. He is currently going to Metropolitan Community College to better himself in Information Technology. Having the urge to learn, Damione decided he wanted to know more than just basic knowledge. Having the opportunity to do so he's planning to go on and get his Associate's Degree and continue to go further in his education. Damione in his spare time likes to read, surf the net, and watch sports when he can .He loves basketball and likes to participate when he can. Damione would like to go on and become very successful in the computer industry period

Figure 1Damione Haley GIT Squad “2009”